Dear [Employer],

I am writing to express my interest in the [Position] role at [Company]. As a self-taught web developer with a bachelor's degree in mathematics and seven years of managerial experience in the hospitality industry, I am confident in my ability to make a valuable contribution to your team.

Throughout my career in hospitality, I have had the opportunity to lead diverse teams of hospitality professionals, tackle unique and demanding challenges, and expand my knowledge and skillset through training and professional development courses. My responsibilities have included the management and supervision of all staff, developing and implementing policies and procedures, as well as setting and achieving realistic goals and objectives. In this time I have developed strong leadership and project-managing skills as well as a deep understanding of the importance of communication and collaboration. This experience has also taught me to work efficiently under pressure and in fast-paced environments. These skills, combined with my passion for technology and strong foundation in mathematics, have allowed me to successfully transition into the field of web development.

In the past couple of years, I have dedicated myself to learning various programming languages, libraries and frameworks. I have gained a firm grasp of core web principles and am proficient in HTML, CSS and Javascript as well as other popular technologies such as React, Node, MongoDB and Express. Additionally, I have a strong understanding of responsive design principles and experience with database modelling, querying and optimization. By utilizing these skills I have completed a number of successful freelance and personal web development projects. I am eager to apply my skills and experience to the wider software development industry and bring my distinctive perspective and skillset to [Company]. My diverse background and technical capabilities make me a unique and valuable candidate for this position.

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss this position further and how I can contribute to your company's success.

Sincerely,
Neil Barry
